Tri-State DisAbility Art Show 2022

Artwork Submission Guidelines

The Y.A.L.E. School is pleased to present this exciting community event! Submitting artwork to the Tri-State DisAbility Art Show is entirely free. While the Art Show is open to the public, young artists that participate must be in grades K-12 and have either an IEP or 504 plan. All should reside or attend school in either New Jersey, Pennsylvania, or Delaware. Artwork must be submitted by either a teacher or family member who is 18 years of age or older.

Participants will not be excluded on the basis of disability, ethnicity, orientation, gender, national origin, or background. The Tri-State Disability Art Show is a fully inclusive and accessible event and requires all involved to act with mutual respect and acceptance.

Section 1 – General Entry Information

Limit of 2 entries per young artist. All entries are guaranteed to be displayed. Artists may also choose to submit their artwork for judging. This is optional and not required in order for artwork to be displayed. Information about submitting art for judging in one of the juried categories is found in Section 5.

To be displayed, artwork must be school appropriate in nature and should not include direct nudity, obscene or lewd content, violence, or weapons. Y.A.L.E. School reserves the right to exclude artwork that is deemed inappropriate, inflammatory, or upsetting to a school age population based on social emotional considerations.

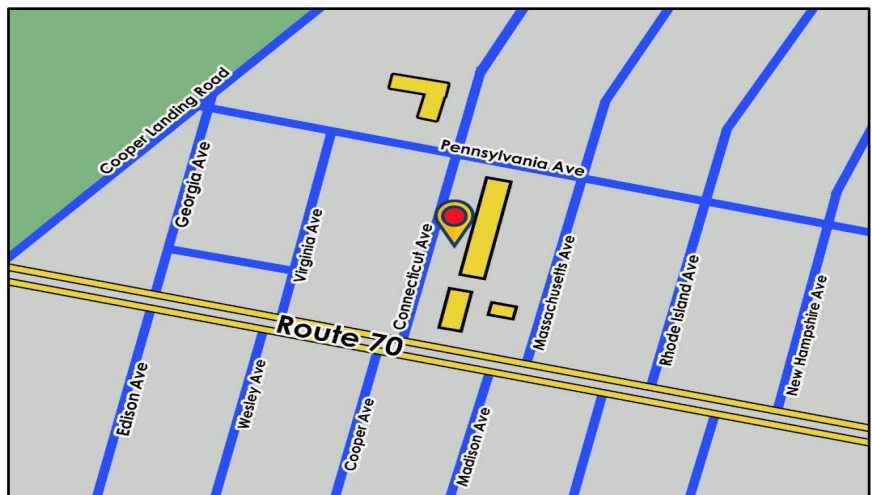

In this packet, please find an Artwork Label sheet with instructions. All entries must be labeled accordingly. In addition, teachers and guardians must complete one Submission Form for the students participating from their schools. That form is also included.

Section 2 – Drop-Off Options

Two- and three-dimensional artwork can be dropped off at the Y.A.L.E. School, Ellisburg Campus on the dates and times below. Artwork will be accepted at the door closest to the flagpole. Entries can also be mailed to the address below with 'Attn: Art Show' on the envelope. All artwork must be received or dropped off by Thursday, April 14th.

About the Y.A.L.E. School

The Y.A.L.E. School is pleased to present the Tri-State DisAbility Art Show for its second year. Established in 1976, the Y.A.L.E. School is a state-approved private school serving students in the tri-state area with campuses in New Jersey and Pennsylvania. Y.A.L.E. School provides a positive approach to students ages 3-21 with disabilities, who need a specialized setting in order to benefit from education. Y.A.L.E. School specializes in supporting students with social, emotional, learning, and behavioral disabilities. Our programs are fully approved and monitored by the New Jersey Department of Education and comply with state and federal rules and regulations. Most students at Y.A.L.E. Schools are referred by their local school district; they attend at no cost to parents.
